Uncertainties of Electric Light.

Boston Advertiser.

Shortly after ten o'clock last night the electric light in Scollay's square, and in hotels and elsewhere about town suddenly became extinguished. The result was foreseen in Young's hotel and in the Tremont house in sufficient time to light the gas, but in the streets there was no help for it, and not until the police lighted the the street gas-lamps pedestrians and vehicles were obliged to continue their ways without light. The cause of the extinguishment of the lights was the breaking of four arms of a driving pulley of the main shaft of the engine room where the electricity is generated. The breaks all appear to be new ones, and apparently not due to defects in the castings. Of course, it was necessary to immediately shut down. It seems that no provision had been made to meet accidents of this kind, or at least there is no evidence of it, for the lights were not again lighted last night. It is thought that the necessary repairs will be made in time to resume lighting to-night.

Pauperism in Paris and London.

The impression that has so long and widely prevailed, especially in England, that the ratio of indigent classes to the population was greater in London than in Paris is not sustained by the official figures that have just been made by a French statistician. On the contrary, the reverse is shown to be the case. In Paris, with a population of less than 2,000,000, it is computed that no less than 354,000 persons were the recipients of charity. After subtracting from this 28,000 children who have been abandoned by their parents, 125,000 inmates of hospitals and asylums, 38,000 sick persons, and 15,000 women in child-birth, we are left about 150,000 persons incapacitated for self support, about five-sixths being absolute paupers. In London the population is estimated at 3,255,000, and in 1880 the great metropolis had only 108,000 persons depending on charity for support. These figures are official, and can be relied upon as relatively accurate.

Slaven's Effervescent California Fruit Salt

Is prepared from sound, ripe fruit, by an experienced analytical chemist, who has spent years in experimenting on its preparation. It is manufactured by a special process known only to the proprietor. This preparation is a safe, simple and effectual medicine for regulating the action of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is most particularly recommended for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Nausea, Sea Sickness, Kidney and Liver Troubles, Over-indulgence either in eating or drinking, etc. As a purifier of the blood in all Scrofulous Diseases, it has no equal. It removes all eruptions from the skin, and has a cooling and invigorating effect on the system. The FRUIT SALT is entirely different from any of the effervescent Salts or Sedlitz preparations in the market, being manufactured from Fruit. For sale by

The Famous Opera Singers.

Annie Louise Carey and Clara Louise Kellogg are beyond question the most famous opera singers of modern times. In fact they have been universally acknowledged to be the leaders of their profession, as well as ladies of large experience and particularly good taste. They have probably traveled more extensively than any ladies on the stage, and, as a consequence, have had excellent opportunities of judging of the merits of different countries and their productions. It is certainly a very great credit to California and the balmy semi-tropical climate of the Pacific, to have had them pronounce Slaven's Yosemite Celogn by far the best they have ever used in an country. For sale by Osburn & Shoemakey Reno, Nevada.

On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

GARFIELD.

The news from Garfield last night and to-day was enough to discourage the stoutest heart. The reports from attending physicians are almost uniformly favorable, but there are many Americans that hope for Garfield's life and expect his death. He is fighting bravely, and the nation awaits the result with bated breath. "He was, Dr. Bliss said, the very best patient he had seen in the course of his surgical practice." This serves as a text for the following verses which appeared in the London Punch recently. They seem to us singularly appropriate in the present crisis:

So fit to die! With courage calm
Armed to confront the threatening dart.
Better than skill is such high heart,
And helpfuller than healing balm.
So fit to live! with power cool
Equipped to fill his function great,
To crush the knaves who shame the State,
Place-seeking pests of honest rule.
Equal to either fate he'll prove
May Heaven's high will incline the scale
The way our prayers would fain avail
To weigh it—to long life and love!

EDITORIAL NOTES.

One of the most remarkable political paradoxes the country has ever furnished was the case of North Carolina, where previous to the recent election the Democrats enlisted on the side of prohibition, while the Republicans favored license. The prohibitionists were defeated by an immense majority, and now the Democrats say 50,000 white voters did not go near the polls because they were intimidated by the blacks, who swarmed in the good cause of free rum.

Governor Kinkead, says the Chronicle, has recovered from a recent serious illness. Treasurer Crockett is wrestling with a new set of teeth. Controller Hallock is so feeble that he seldom walks without the aid of a cane, while Secretary Babcock continues as vigorous and youthful as Beau Farmtosh or Sir Anthony Absolute.

The soul-inspiring, lung-congesting, brain-fever-producing gall of the stonecutter who put his name, in inch letters, on Nevada's monumental block, rivals Yosemite, and puts the Colorado River Canyon to shame.

No article in support of Mr. Pocket-bookwalter has yet appeared in the leading organ of the Ohio Democracy, the Cincinnati Enquirer, unless an article in Friday's issue, entitled "Hold Your Nose" is to be interpreted as such.

A lawyer employed by Mabel Wilberforce in London withdrew from the case when he found that his client had told a falsehood. That is a sample of what the English newspaper man can do in the same field with Eli Perkins.

This fall New York will elect a Controller, Engineer, Secretary of State, Attorney-General, State Treasurer, Judge of the Court of Appeals, Assemblymen and State Senators and four Congressmen.

The London Lancet, which is pretty good authority, sustains the course adopted by the Presidents' physicians, in not cutting out the bullet.

ROUND ABOUT.

The Canadian Temperance Act has been carried in Cape Breton county by a majority of 400.

It is said that the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad has allied with the Burlington and Missouri Railroad and will build to Ogden.

Saturday the Apaches murdered twenty-seven out of the twenty-nine habitants of a small Mexican village in New Mexico, near Rio Purco.

Near Chester, Pa., during a squall on the river Saturday, a small yacht, containing eight men, was capsized, and two men drowned.

There will be about 1,000 United States troops at the Yorktown celebration. Company F of the Third Artillery will be taken there from California.

New York yesterday literally emptied itself. It is difficult to compute the number who visited the various watering places in the suburbs, but cars and steamboats were on every side thronged to their utmost capacity.

Five passengers were injured by Friday's runaway on the Georgetown and Auburn stage line. Among them was I. Simon of Georgetown, who, with his wife and mother, were returning from Oakland.

TERRITORIES.

Disastrous cloud-bursts appear to be frequent in the southern portion of Arizona.

The citizens of Las Vegas, New Mexico, have raised $1,079 to present to Sheriff Garrett, who killed Billy the Kid.

The Phœnix, Arizona, Gazette prints a long list of names of those who have fallen victims to the recent intense heat in that vicinity.

Washouts continue to occur almost daily throughout New Mexico and Arizona, and the time-tables are no longer of any use.

The residence of G. N. Gale, Postmaster at Olympia, W. T., was found to be on fire Saturday morning. All efforts to save it were of no avail. The loss is $2,000; insured for $1,200.

The Arizona cowboys continue to have a high old time on the Mexican border. They are represented to be in possession of large bands of cattle and horses ready for the Texas market.

The dwelling of Mr. Dunn at South Bay near Olympia, W. T., with all it contained, was burned to the ground on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Dunn was badly burned while trying to save the building.

A dispatch from Cheney, W. T., states that S. D. Hammer, an employe of Brown & Leyton's saw mill was accidently drowned August 11 in Granite Creek. His body was recovered. Deceased was twenty-two years old.

Friday evening the West-bound emigrant train ran into a washout three miles from Las Vegas, N. M. Engineer Townshend and Fireman Patten went down with their engine and were instantly killed. The bodies cannot be recovered until the water subsides.

Saturday the remaining section of the railroad bridge at the Cienega, east of Tucson, A. T., and fifty feet of the east fill, were washed out. A large washout has occurred west of Pantano and the water is six inches over the track and still rising at that station. The west-bound through passenger train is delayed at Benson. No through trains have passed east for several days. Joint forces from El Paso and Tucson will immediately start for the broken places. At Casa Grande the water is four feet over the track and 1,200 feet of the railroad is gone. Maricopa is flooded.

OREGON.

Hoyt, the assaulter of Ida Cook at Astoria, has been sent to the penitentiary for twenty years.

The sash and door factory of H. Stapleton, at Salem, was destroyed by fire Friday. Loss, $1,600: no insurance.

N. Holden of the Portland firm of Johnston & Holden, plumbers, was drowned at Hwaco Beach, below Astoria, Friday.

T. J. Stump one of the oldest captains on the Upper Columbia river, fell dead at the wheel of the Spokane, Saturday morning, above Pine Tree Rapids on Snake river.

Fifteen hundred dollars belonging to the estate of J. P. Baker, deceased of Jackson county, was sent to the State Treasury last week by the Administrator, no heirs having been found.

News has just been received at Portland of the killing of Dr. Cozad, once a prominent physician of Roseburg, a few days ago at Santa Fe New Mexico. He got into an altercation in a saloon at that place, during which he was shot.

Quite a large force of men are constantly kept watching the track between the Willows and Alkali and John Day, Grant's Station and Celilo and the Dalles, to keep back the shifting sands.

The Astorian says that 260 fishermen left for San Francisco by the steamer State of California, taking with them an average of $300 each, as the result of the net earnings of the fishing season just closed.

Two suits in equity have been pending in the United States Circuit Court at Portland, involving title to the Agricultural Works and Griswold's brick block, in Salem. They were brought by the United States vs. W. C. Griswold and some others, to subject the property and some other to execution on a judgment for about $40,000, including costs against Griswold. Both were decided Friday morning in favor of plaintiff. They subject the entire block to execution, and several other lots, but do not affect the title of the Agricultural works.

Cured of Drinking.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for liquor which had so prostrated him that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all the burning thirst, it took away the appetite for liquor, it made his nerves steady, and he has remained a sober and steady man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups. I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading R. R. Official. Chicago, Ills.

THE BOSS.

He Thinks He May Possibly be a Pioneer But Does Not Know.

Dave Evans says he thanks Providence he is neither a Chinaman nor an editor, and he will compete for the Bacon prize offered to the best single-handed liar. As a sample, Dave threw off the following:

"When I first came to this county there was no Peavine Hill over yonder at all. It was nothing but an ornery little sagebrush knoll. Steamboat Springs hadn't come out yet, and the river was the size of a whiplash. I hadn't been here a year when the Injuns came, and then the whites. There was no springs at all, but the country got tramped down until it squeezed 'em out. I've held Huffaker and Lake on my knee many a time, bought candy for 'em and all that. They tell me I'm a pioneer; mebbe I am, but I'm here."

JOHNSON JUGGED.

A Colored Person Leaves Reno Suddenly and Lands in the Justice Court at Wadsworth.

Some time since a gay Lothario of the colored persuasion visited Douglas avenue, and when he left, the good lady of the house found herself minus two fingerrings and $4 75 in subsidiary coin, although she had a black eye to show. The lively moke was seen early that morning hanging on the back of the tender to a wild engine bound east. That same night Adam Schrieber came across the traveler near the Catholic Church, and the negro took to his heels. Late that evening Charley Becker's saloon was robbed. Constable Avery has been searching for the versatile young man suspecting him of both offences. Justice Drought, of Wadsworth, informed the District Attorney last night that the thief had been caught in Battle Mountain, and returned to Wadsworth. The stolen property is in possession of Pitzer, a section boss at Clark's Station. He writes Avery that the property can be had on demand, and he goes to Wadsworth to-day to identify the vagabond. District Attorney Rankin is in Wadsworth to-day, and will try to induce the wandering minstrel to make his home with Sheriff Walker until the warm season is over. He gives the name of Johnson.

The cause of Johnson's arrest at Battle Mountain was an assault upon a brakeman who had twice put the negro from the train. His examination at Wadsworth is under a charge of assault with intent to kill. Avery thinks there is no doubt of his identity with the man who committed the two thefts above described.

Since the above was in type the GAZETTE is informed that the charge at Wadsworth was dismissed.

Johnson was brought to Reno at noon to-day. He is identified as the artist who formerly polished the brogans of Reno's citizens at Nick Hammersmith's. He has been charged with burglary, and Becker's stolen pistols were found on the culprit.

The Demand for Locomotives.

The V. & T. R. R. Co. shipped three locomotives yesterday, destined to Portland, Oregon, where they will be used in the service of the Oregon Navigation Co. Four locomotives have been sold by the V. & T., and six remain at the shops in Carson awaiting purchasers. They can get better prices now for these machines than at any time for years previous. There is a heavy demand for this commodity at present the Rogers works having orders for 1,000 locomotives, and the Baldwin works orders which it will take them three years to fill.

A Wonderful Record.

Speaking about the heat there are a great many useful and ornamental articles to be had at Nasby's Bazaar. The finest styles of Ladies' jewelry may be mentioned. Nasby's thermometer has reformed, it does not indulge in those wild and heated expressions for which it became noted. At 9, 11, 1 and 3 to-day it said: 81, 79, 79, 82. Go to the Bazaar and lay in some Cable Coil the first chance you get.

Police Court.

Ah Hong was arrested yesterday for running water into the road. He said he had been the victim of a foul conspiracy on the part of two small boys who persisted in blocking his ditch. His tale of suffering was a chapter from real life and there was not more than one dry eye in the Court room.

Royal Blood.

Lee Winnemucca, a brother of Natchez, arrived in Reno this morning. He had not been here since early youth and did not know the place. He put up at the Depot. The naughty man had two wives with him, speaks English like Richard Grant White, and throws up his money like a bonanza prince.

Wicked for Clergymen.

"I believe it to be all wrong and even wicked for clergymen or other public men to be led into giving testimony to quack doctors or vile stuffs called medicines. But when a really meritorious article, made of valuable remedies known to all, that all physicians use and trust in daily, we should freely commend it. I therefore cheerfully and heartily commend Hop Bitters for the good they have done me and my friends, firmly believing they have no equal for family use. I will not be without them." Rev.——, Washington, D. C.

Train Delayed.

The railroad track 5 miles west of Kelton was overflowed with water last night, and the west bound train will arrive about two hours late in consequence.

McLAUGHLIN'S MISTAKE.

A Lundyman and a Former Renoite Who Went to War Twice.

The Homer Index gives the following: "On Friday evening J. E. Baker and Bill McLaughlin had a misunderstanding about some trivial matter when the latter left by the back door and soon afterward returned to the same door and snapped a double-barreled shotgun at Baker. The charge failed to explode, or half a dozen men in the crowded saloon might have been killed. After snapping the gun McLaughlin ran out of the back door and disappeared for the evening. Baker ran out at the front door, but soon afterward returned with a pistol and searched the town in vain for his antagonist. About 10:30 this morning Baker entered McDonald Bros.' saloon, on Main street, and finding McLaughlin sitting there playing cards, drew a pistol and opened fire. The first cap snapped, and then three shots were fired in rapid succession, one of which took effect in the large muscle of McLaughlin's right thigh, and some five inches below and to the right of the groin. McLaughlin ran out through the back door, procured his shotgun and again started out in search of Baker, but was disarmed by Deputy Constable Smith. The wound is not considered dangerous." Baker used to live in Reno.

Strange Story.

Dick Smith tells how "Mack," his old dog, now in a better world, used to work the emigrant trains. One night he came in with 15 soft-boiled eggs, a cheese, some hot biscuits and a pot of tea. Several small families used to live on his work. Mack picked up a ticket for Sacramento one day and left an estate valued at $7 when he died. It don't look reasonable that a dog would want to have anything to do with a teapot, but that's the way Dick tells it.

Carpets, Furniture and Upholstery.

Parties visiting San Francisco should call at the ware-rooms of C. M. Plum & Co., 641 and 643 Market street. Messrs. Plum & Co. carry the finest stock of carpets of any house in the city. They import direct from the manufactory and their stock is fresh and of the latest patterns. Prices are lower than the lowest. Any order intrusted to them will receive prompt attention and be satisfactorily filled. Read their ad. under "New To-Day."

Big Meadows.

W. A. Van Reed, Lovelocks, writes that the crop of wheat, oats and barley never looked better. He cut his second crop of alfalfa last week and cutting. This week the farmers are got more than he did from the first harvesting their grain. Water in the Humboldt is very low but the farmers won't suffer any from that cause during the present season.

Knew His Business.

A Chicago exchange says of the burnt cork artists: Haverly knew his business when he determined to close his present engagement with the most uniformly successful of all his ventures. The house was full; the audience enjoyed every joke, encored almost everything, and never seemed to tire of the Mastodonic entertainment.

All Aboard!

The Central Pacific Company has shipped to Wadsworth two bells, weight 125 pounds each. They were cast by W. T. Garrat, San Francisco, and are his best work. One will be hung on the north side of the Depot Hotel, some day this week, and the other will tap off the the tardy traveler at Wadsworth.

Singing School.

Prof. Stimson's singing school will be held this evening at the Baptist church. It is very important there should be a large attendance and that all should be present to commence the first lesson. All who want to learn to sing should not let this opportunity slip. *

Teacher's Certificates.

At the teacher's examination last week the following received first grade certificates: Elmer McArthur, Mr. Hitchcock, Misses Julia Wintermantel, Richards and Henry. Second grade certificates were gained by Misses Frankie Gibbs, Sarah H. Wilson and Ella Bishop.

Steamboat Mines.

There is no work being done on the sulphur mine at present. The company employs a man to stay at the mine and look after it. The superintendent, Pierre Humbert, says there are some prospects of selling the mine o Boston parties. The quicksilver mine is also abandoned for the present. A. P. Kelly, of the Boston Globe, was out here lately in the interest of Eastern capitalists. He was favorably impressed with the outlook and will probably bring about a sale of the mine to New York parties.

Nevada and Oregon

The Santa Cruz has hauled four car loads of timber out to the sixth trestle, and carpenters are now at work on this material. The track is laid to this trestle, which is seven miles from town. Some of the track must now be ballasted, and the building of the sixth trestle will stop track-laying for about one week.

Railroad Officials.

A special train from Carson to-day brought down Superintendent H. M. Yerington, Harry Hunter, Master of transportation, and D. A. Bender, General Freight Agent of the V. & T. R. R. The first two gentlemen went out on the line of the Nevada and Oregon with contractor Moore and other directors of the road.

The Wizard.

Prof. Bosko will give an exhibition of his skill at the Athletic Club hall this evening. A GAZETTE reporter had the pleasure last evening of seeing the gentleman swallow a sword, eat fire and perform several ingenious tricks with coins worthy of Heller. Bosko is genuine. Go and see him.

Stage Robbery.

The Sierra valley stage, bound for Truckee, was robbed again yesterday afternoon at a point of timber beyond Corey's. About three hundred dollars of W. F. & Co.'s money was taken. The passengers were not molested. A lone man with a shot gun did the honors.

Chinese Minister.

The Hon. Edward Stevens, of Pennsylvania, United States Consul to China, was a passenger on last night's west bound overland. President Garfield appointed him the day before the attempted assassination.

Fine Work.

Still Hoping.

Special to the GAZETTE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.

Executive Mansion, 1 P. M.—Miss Edsone, one of the attendants upon the President, retired at 4 o'clock this morning, but did not leave the Executive Mansion for her home until noon. Previous to her departure, she said: "The President's case this time is certainly very critical," but she still had hopes of his recovery. The trouble with the President's stomach evidently had nothing to do with the wound. The wound is nearly healed.

That Tar.

This paper recently announced that a gentleman of this city had received a consignment of tar by express. A San Francisco exchange asks: "Does this indicate the recent arrival of some distinguished seducer or high-toned cracksman in that peaceful and virtuous hamlet? If the tar came by slow freight it would not show any particular expectancy for a subject, but sending it along by express indicates that there is some mischief brewing."

A New Firm.

Messrs. Knowles & Bainbridge of San Leandro, Cal., will establish a tin and hardware store in Reno. They now run 14 wagons in California, and propose to attend upon the country trade of this section with three of these. They will occupy the east half of J. C. Hagerman's store. The new firm will also keep all sorts of agricultural implements. Mr. Knowles goes below to-night.

The President Much Worse.

[Special to the GAZETTE.]

Seven Wives a Week.

The Nawab of Gondal, in India, has chosen seven lovely and youthful brides from among the daughters of the Gondal aristocracy, and has made arrangements to lead them to the altar, one after another, for seven successive days. It will be the pleasing duty of each bride, progressively and in regular rotation, to attend the weddings subsequently to her own, so that the first lady of the series will enjoy the unusual privilege of witnessing seven nuptial ceremonies, in all of which she will be more or less directly interested within the limits of a single week. The sevenfold bridegroom, however, has bestowed upon all his brides, wedding-dresses and ornaments of identical material, design and value. The rooms they are destined to occupy in his palace, are furnished exactly alike; and the accident of seniority, as regards the mere date of their respective marriage ceremonies, is not to carry with it any precedence at court.
